

Round table on “Startups” held by the Tashkent Institute of Architecture and Construction

According to the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan "Measures to improve the system of attraction of young people to the science and support of their initiatives," the information resource center of our institute hold a "Round table" on "Startups". The roundtable attended by PhD student of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers E.Ozodov, Head of the Organization of Research Activities of Talented Students G.Farmmankulova and staff U.Kdirbaev, deans of all faculties, head of the department of Economics and Real Estate Management A.Turdiev and Professor teachers with talented students.

The roundtable opened by A.Turdiev, Head of the Department of Economics and Real Estate Management, and E.Ozodov, "Creativity" for the realization of creative, intellectual and entrepreneurial potential of young people, encouraging innovative activities of talented students, young scientists and entrepreneurs, science and education. The roundtable was interesting. The gifted students received more information on Startups and received answers to questions they did not understand.

TIAME press service