

Report on scientific activity

Discussion of the report of the 1st year masters of the specialty 5A3010201-Electric Supply (water management) on the work done during the I semester of 2019-2020 passed.

In this scientific activity report prepared by masters 118 (Uzbek), 119 (Russian) groups on implementing scientific activities defined in their personal calendar work plan with the participation of faculty members and supervisors of graduate students. During the presentation, the teachers of the department received a satisfactory answer to each graduate student's questions. At the end of the report, shortcomings in the presentation noted and recommendations made to correct them and the members of the commission assessed accordingly.

Information N. Abduganiev, Laboratory assistant at the department ES

Press Service of the Institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov