

Practice-related reforms

It is interesting to note that in honor of the 30th anniversary of the Independence of the Republic of Uzbekistan, following the motto "Live independent and safe in the updated and new Uzbekistan", these days a number of spiritual and educational events, meetings and concerts are being held with the participation of scientists, poets, writers, actors and artists. One of such cultural events was organized on May 24-29, 2021 in all districts of Samarkand region. The event was attended by different representatives of art and culture along with the professor Ismailova Zuhra Karabaevna. The scientist gave brief information about the importance of current reforms that are being carried out in recent years in the social and political sphere of our country, where she mentioned about the gained achievements in all spheres of the country. The celebrities performed different songs, which was the reason of raising the mood of those who participated at the event.

Press

Service of TIIAME