

Crime prevention

It is important to suggest at the Faculty of "Land Management", 1st year students learn about effective methods of crime protection and their harmful consequences, increase the level of legal literacy of students, as well as the effectiveness of organizing the spiritual work. The representatives from law enforcement agencies on the initiative of the Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs Kh. Eshova, educator Sh. Islamov held an event on the topic "Crime prevention and the fight against crime and violence." The Captains Sarvar I.Saidakhmedov, I. Komiljonov, K. Ikramov, U. Tursunov gave full information about the topic of the event, since transnational crimes such as international terrorism, drug trafficking and human trafficking continue to threaten human security, the victims of which, unfortunately, constitute the majority, each of these transnational crimes poses a serious threat to the development of society.

They also paid attention that the purpose of this event is't only informing young people about unpleasant events, but for appreciating the value of the own world and protection from threats. The students also shared that many of our young people today are addicted to alcohol and, as a result, some of them commit various crimes. Definitely, anytype of war ends in hardship and in some cases ordinary and innocent people suffer from it, but some people resort to such riots only for material gain. It is not easy for us to achieve this peace, therefore we must value and preserve it, and it is in the hands of young people to be good citizen of Uzbekistan and to make contribution for the country. During the event, invited experts answered all the questions of students.

Press Service of TIAME  