

A good vacation helps to study

A good vacation helps to study

Today, in the system of higher education, it is necessary to improve the youth education system, expand its spiritual and moral knowledge, educate students in the spirit of patriotism, ensure the stability of the social and spiritual environment in student dormitories of higher educational institutions. The head of our state put forward five important initiatives to organize social, spiritual and educational work on the new system. Within the framework of the 5 most important initiatives, a lot of work is being done to increase the spirituality of youth and the organization of its meaningful leisure.

In particular, the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers organizes excursions to the sights of the city for students living in a student dormitory. Taking into account the wishes of students living in a student hostel. On March 1, 2020, a trip organized to the mausoleum of Zangiata and the Museum of History of Uzbekistan. On behalf of all students, the Primary Organization of the Youth Union and the Chairman of the Student Council, we thank the rector, Professor Uktam Pardaevich Umurzakov, Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs Ruzimurod Kungratovich Choriev for organizing the events.

TIIAME press service