

Landscaping and gardening - an ancient tradition

With the onset of spring in our country, work begins on the sanitary cleaning of the territory, pruning of trees, planting of ornamental plants, shrubs, and trees. This year, with the advent of spring, the Institute began landscaping works. On March 2, 2020, the Committee on Forestry brought pine trees and ornamental trees. The Faculty of Land Management has begun work on landscaping its territory.

TIIAME press club