

"Teachers are the dearest, greatest and most respected people in the country"

October 1 - Teachers' and Mentors' Day is widely celebrated in our country as a national holiday. Teachers always enjoy the respect and their work is valued. Thanks to independence, the attention to teachers is increasing. Today all the opportunities and conditions are created for teachers in our country.

The Karshi branch of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers educates young people with enthusiastic, kind and skilled professionals. The holiday "Teachers' and Mentors' Day", which is held annually at the Karshi branch of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers, was held with special joy and preparations. The labor veterans, the staff, executives and students attended at the event. Z.M Mukimov, director of the branch opened the event.

Students of the branch performed holiday congratulations, poems, songs and dances in praise of teachers. As a result of such events, our young people respect teachers, appreciate their work.

Happy Holidays, dear teachers and mentors!
