On May 12, 2000, at the initiative of the first President of our country, "Martyrs' Memorial" complex was opened in Yunusabad district, Tashkent. It was a long-awaited historical event. Since then, every year on August 31 - Remembrance day of the Victims of Repression, the memorial complex "Martyrs' Memory" and the Museum "Memory of Victims of Repression" will become one of the busiest shrines in the capital. The faculty of "Irrigation and Drainage" in the direction of "Ameliorative hydrology" Phase 1 109 - made a trip to the museum with a group coach and students. Museums have a special role to play in the spiritual upliftment of society, the strengthening of the national idea, and the upbringing of the younger generation in the spirit of respect for national values. It is no coincidence that museums are described as treasures of history, spirituality and art. They contain a variety of unique and valuable artifacts, which reflect the life of the ancestors, the struggle and the rich heritage. One of the functions of museums in our socio-political life is to be a center of education and upbringing.
