

A glance at the poet's life and work

Our people have always been intelligent people who have elevated the value of poetry for centuries. At the same time, our people gave birth to great representatives of the world of poetry. One of these poets is the People's Poet of Uzbekistan Abdulla Aripov. Today a group of creative initiative students and teachers of the Faculty of Land Management gathered on the Alley of Writers in front of the monument to the great Uzbek writer Abdulla Aripov. Vice-rector for Youth affairs R. Choriev, dean of the faculty "Land management" Sh. Narbaev, deputy dean H. Eshova, head of the department "Land use" A. Bobodjonova, member of the women's council of the institute Z. Khafizova, the chair of the women's committee of the faculty O. Ruzikulov, as well as professors, teachers and students took part. The guest of the event was a member of the Writers' Union, the great literary critic Gafurjon Tadjibaev.

The focus of the event is the author's great contribution to the development of modern Uzbek literature, his active participation in state and public affairs, as well as his passion for educating young artists. When we say Abdulla Aripov, we mean great talent, a brilliant figure, a mentor who personifies both his work and his way of life, says the great literary critic Gafurjon Tadjibaev. - The names of the mentor are in the hearts of our people. There are poems such as "Uzbekistan is my motherland", "Why do I love Uzbekistan?", "My first love" and many others, which have become popular wisdom today.

The essence and wisdom of Abdulla Aripov's poems must be developed, and this invaluable heritage must be passed on to future generations. Talented and enterprising students of our faculty, who are interested in the poet's poems, read his poems. The Union of Writers of Uzbekistan donated collections of poems to students who took an active part.

Press Service of TIAME