

Children -our great future

Love and family harmony, social and state care are the conditions that allow our children to grow up happy, study, do what they love, and in the future become skillful parents and citizens of their country. During the International Children's Day, which is annually celebrated on June 1, 2021, the winners of the competition, organized by the trade union committee of the institute were awarded with different presents under the motto "Give peace to children".

Dance competition results:

The 1st place was taken by Boburjonova Sevara, the granddaughter of Associate Professor of the Department of Life Safety Mirkhasilova Zulfiya Kuchkarovna. She received 370 votes.

The 2nd place - Nurboboiev Amriddin Ramziddin's son, the son of the Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs of the Faculty of Land Management -Eshova Khurriyat . She received 255 votes.

The 3rd place - Validzhonova Mushtariybegim, daughter of the teacher from the Department of Professional Education and Physical Culture -Vakhid Mahmudov. She got 219 votes.

Vocal Competition Results:

The first place was taken by Khasanbek and Zukhrabonu Komiljonovna, children of the director of the Palace of Culture of the Institute- Jamshid Komiljonov. They received 282 votes.

The 2nd place - Valizhonov Musobek, son of the teacher from the Department of Professional Education and Physical Culture- Vakhid Mahmudov. He received 220 votes.

We wish the winners to achieve more success in their future endeavors.

Press Service of TIAME