

Training tutors, their duties, rights and responsibilities

It is important to suggest that Zukhriddin Khaidarov, head of the department for youth affairs, spirituality and education, organized a training seminar for mentors and on performing discipline on November 4, 2021, as well as organizational and regulatory documents and monitoring by the authorities. "

During the training, mentors were provided with detailed information about job responsibilities, their rights and responsibilities, the work they perform in academic groups, spiritual and educational activities, regulatory documents carried out by tutors and their monitoring, as well as explanations. At the end of the training, answers were given to the participants questions. In order to improve the efficiency of tutoring, their proposals were discussed.

Press Service of

TIIAME