

In the world of poetry

It is interesting to inform that students and staff of faculty “ Energy Supply for Agriculture and Water Resources” of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers organized an event, and held on the Writers' Alley. An arts evening dedicated to perpetuating the memory of the national hero of Uzbekistan, the late poet Abdulla Aripov, was held in the bosom of nature, in a special spirit. The event was attended by the dean of the faculty, deputy dean, professors, teachers, as well as leaders and activists of the Faculty's Youth Union. In the world of poetry competition was organized on the basis of the poet's poems. While opening the ceremony, the dean of the faculty A. Isakov expressed warm thoughts about Abdulla Aripov. Particular interest was aroused by the participation in the event of a member of the Union of Writers of Uzbekistan M. Ramazanova. They quoted excellent examples of poetry, giving examples of life events associated with the poet's memory. The talented students of the faculty presented a bouquet of poems written by A. Aripov. Associate professors Sh. Rakhmonov, D. Akbarov gave examples from the poet's works and poems.

 B. Komoljanov, a fourth-year student of our faculty, holder of a scholarship of Abdulla Oripov, also expressed his opinion. At the event, students received interesting information. Our mentors Saidaminova Sayora, Nuralieva Zilola, Tursunova Zilola, Sadullaev Jakhongir, who were introduced on the basis of a special decree of the President of the Republic and began working at our faculty, also showed their activity. Students proposed to reorganize such art evenings, and the dean of the faculty A. Isakov supported the opinion of the youth. It is planned to hold joint events with the Writers' Union of Uzbekistan.

The activities aimed at the meaningful organization of students' leisure are based on the study of the ancestral heritage, which helps them find their place on the path of independent life, applying their life example. Because we believe that such events will provide students with spiritual education.
