

Children are our future

The Karshi branch of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers was organized event under the motto “We are indifferent to the future of our children” with the participation of parents of the 1st courses.

The event was attended by the head of the Methodological department, Associate Professor A.Abdiev spoke about the educational process at the branch and the work with talented students. At the end of the event, the trainers of group 104-105 Shuhrat Khushshiev and Jamol Urinov answered to the parents questions. Parents were provided with an understanding of the “Student Youth and Ethics” and the grading system.

Press Secretary of the institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov