

The fourth day of the festival

The "5 Days of Spring" project, a continuation of the 4th day, began with inter-faculty student sports competitions and was full of heated debates.

The continuation of the project "5 days of spring", organized on the basis of a special program for women of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers, began on the 4th day with inter-faculty sports competitions among students and was full of heated debates. it has been.

The competitions were supervised by the chairman of the women's team of the Institute and the organizers. Sports competitions and intellectual games, contests, series of events were successfully completed and all the active girls who participated in this project were thanked. Tomorrow is the last day of the "5 Days of Spring" festival, ie the awarding ceremony of all students and teachers who actively participated in the festival, the awarding of staff and the Women's Festival will take place in the conference hall on the 4th floor of Building B at 11: It will be held at 00 with the participation of the management of the institute. On behalf of all women involved in the project to the leadership of the institute, the trade union committee of the institute, heads of faculties, the chief accountant of the institute, chairmen of the women's faculty, who supported the initiative of the youth of our institute and the women's team. sincere thanks. We invite all faculty members and professors to tomorrow's awards ceremony.

TIIAME press service