

Visiting teachers is the criterion of humanity

The poet says: who is that person worth of pride, it a teacher was the answer. Furthermore, it was told that only the worth person can be able to respect the teacher . On May 5, the faculty of "Land Resources Management" dean (PhD), associate professor Sh. Under the leadership of Narbayev the faculty for many years has been training specialists for the country in the field of land management and land cadastre visiting the home of the mother of our faculty, Sulaimanova Munira Kholikovna, who worked for many years in the department of "land use", who was able to share her knowledge and experience with students, congratulating teachers on the celebration of Thanksgiving in the Great months, recognizing their services to the Institute, they wished the teacher all the best in the world and conveyed greetings from the leadership of the faculty.

Information provided by Usmanova, the lecturer of the Land Use Department Press service of TIAME