

A visit to SOS- Children's Villages of Uzbekistan

We know well that childhood is like a pure source of ocean life due to the moments full of goodness, a beautiful life which is far from worries. For example, a pure heart of a child, which is likely to a spring morning is really kind. In this regard, Dean of "Land Management" Faculty, docent Sh. Narbaev, Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs H. Eshova and Senior Lecturer of "Land use" Department, Deputy Chairman of the Women's Council of the Institute Z. Khafizova organized the event under the motto "Let's give the world to our children" which was devoted to the 30th anniversary of our independence. The charitable action was held under the mentioned motto, the funds which were raised for this charitable action were transferred to the children of SOS Children's Villages of Uzbekistan in Mirzo-Ulugbek district of Tashkent. We have one saying in our nation: "No child is left alone". We know that orphans are usually weak and vulnerable people. It is not a secret that person, who offends an orphan, oppresses him or violates his rights, never can be considered as a true believer.

Definitely, helping orphans is an extremely rewarding thing. The duty of any person is to provide support to orphans with food, clothing, education and upbringing. When all these things are done for the benefit of orphans, these people will become a useful citizens of the society. Therefore, any of us should not be tired of doing good deeds.
