

The vaccine of honesty

At the initiative of the activists of the primary organization of the Tashkent State University of Law and at the suggestion of our faculty, was held the campaign to combat corruption. The purpose of such projects is to teach, how harmful this concept is for today's young people, and that they should not make such mistakes in their future activities.

Each of us must take this issue seriously, as the President has said: It is necessary to have the key role in this process. There is no doubt that the Ministry of Justice, together with the Youth Union of Uzbekistan, will continue to promote such an important topic.
