

Veterans are always honored

Our present day proves that such noble goals as humanism and all-round support of the population are at the root of the reforms carried out in the country nowadays. Every year in our country May 9 is widely celebrated as a Day of Remembrance and Honors, in these days with special love and attention to the participants of the Great Patriotic War, veterans of labor.

✘ In order to implement these noble deeds, the apartments of Saidakram Saidalievich Khodjaev, head of the scientific department of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers, and Svetlana Zhuraevna Akhmedova, who is now retired, were visited.

The press-service of TIAME