Veterans of labor are always honored

Good relationships between people are about sincerity, meetings. It is true that in meetings relationships are cemented. Another opportunity was created to get information from teachers under the guise of celebration. The professorial-teaching staff of department" vital activity "on the threshold of May 9" Day of memory and honors "have visited the house of the senior lecturer Gazinazarova Siddika Masharovna. During the visit, the veteran of labor received congratulations and gifts from the leadership of the institute.

The press-service of TIIAME