

Project completion or award ceremony

As you know, the youth team of our institute, which welcomed the first days of spring in March this year with good results and good mood, is actively preparing for the organization and holding of spring holidays at a high level. In particular, the process of preparation for the International Women's Day on March 8, the ongoing practical work, measures to enhance the role of women in society is clearly visible today. On March 2-6, 2020, the management of the institute and the women's team, the Youth Affairs Sector organized a festival for women of the institute "Five Days of Spring", which includes a series of events and competitions. In support of this project and initiative, the management of the institute opened the festival and for 4 days organized interesting, competitions, events for women in the faculties of the institute, as well as many students. The contests were hotly debated and in a good mood. It is safe to say that the spiritual and educational environment, friendship, solidarity and teamwork among the girls have become more active. In particular, the chairpersons of the faculties 'women teams agreed to work together. We believe that this, in turn, will yield results in the next steps. Within the framework of the festival, about 15 competitions, sports competitions, events, intellectual games were held. The total coverage is about 725 women of the institute. The project was widely covered on culture and education TV, radio and social networks. Today, March 6, the closing ceremony of the festival "Five Days of Spring" for women of the institute, the awarding ceremony of participants and winners was held in the first half of the day with the participation of Vice-Rector for Youth, professors, and faculty. The event was opened by the Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs R.Choriev, who took part in the project and awarded the winners with certificates and gifts from the rector of the institute. About 150 women were awarded wonderful gifts, certificates were presented to professors, staff, and students who helped with the organizational work. Every woman who attended said several times that they did not expect the awarding process to be organized at such a high level.
