

Children of the Great nation

On February 7, Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers hosted a traditional event dedicated to the 579th anniversary of our great-grandfather.

The event was attended by People's Artist of Uzbekistan Munojot Yulchiyeva, Honored Artist of the Republic of Uzbekistan Tolib Muminov, famous actress Nigina Anorboyeva and head of the Abdulla Kadiri School of Art Nilufar Yuldasheva and talented students. Young students studying at the Abdulla Kadiri School of Creativity were familiarized with the ongoing reforms at the Institute, with the facilities provided to the youth.

Initially, Nigina Anorboyeva and Tolib Muminov noted that Alisher Navoi has been studied with great interest by world scientists as an artist who made a significant contribution to the development of literature, spirituality and enlightenment. The noble efforts to uplift the spirituality of our people, especially the younger generation, and prioritize the human factor are consistently continuing today. These aspects are evident in the study of the rich spiritual heritage of our great ancestors.

When we say Navoi, our hearts are filled with immense pride. In our country, a systematic work is being carried out to study the works of this great man, to re-read and re-publish his works, to widely use the ideas in the education of the younger generation. Shavkat Mirziyoyev's aspiration to surrender people's hopes, care and attention to our national literature, and his noble initiatives are in harmony with the living ideas of Navoi. Alisher Navoi's works of humanity, patriotism, peace and tranquility have been translated into many languages, and this noble work is being continued. Professor Munojot Yulchiyeva, the head of the department of Maqom singing, People's Artist of Uzbekistan, sang songs by Alisher Navoi. Such educational events, creative discussions and conferences are held all over the country. The director of the Abdulla Kadiri School of Art and others noted that in today's complex globalization, Navoi heritage plays an important role in nurturing young people in the spirit of respect for national traditions and values, devotion to the Motherland.
