

internal rules are good for everyone

The main core of development is law and discipline. Follow the rules laid down is the duty of everyone. An intelligent, well-mannered, hard-working and religious child is a wealth not only for the parents, but also for society. The above qualities are an integral part of society today. On 5 February, 2021 in dormitory of the Institute a meeting with students was organized by the head of women's council of Faculty of Hydromelioration B.Mamadaminova and other employees M.Khakimova and N.Rakhmonberdiyeva. The meeting was successful and full of discussion. The main topic of discussion was the behaviour, dress and personal hygiene of girls living in dormitories. 