

A book is a mirror of spirituality

On April 7, 2021 year students of 4 course of 403 group of the faculty of organization and management of water economy under the guidance of the curator of the group, senior lecturer of accounting and auditing department M.Rahmataliev visited the book fair in the Information and Resource Centre. The book fair is held under the heading "A book is a mirror of human spirituality".

During the visit, they were introduced to educational, methodological and scientific literature, including masterpieces of Uzbek and world literature. The visit was very informative. At the end of the visit, the group supervisor and students presented books from their personal libraries to the institute library. The curator of the group and the students who took the initiative urged all faculty and students at our institute to support and participate in this initiative.
