

Iftar at the dormitory

The honor and dignity of the blessed month of Ramadan before Allah Subhanahu and the Most High is inestimable, and it was in this month that the Most High revealed his word-Quran azimush-shawni. The believers were enjoined to fast only during Ramadan. This is mentioned in ayat 185 of surah Baqarah: "Ramadan is the month in which people are given explicit statements consisting of guidance and direction. Whoever of you is now in the moon, let him fast...(Sheikh Muhammad Sadiq Muhammad Yusuf, " Tafsiri Hilal")

Ramadan, the blessed month of Muslims, has come to the whole earth. In this month Muslims perform the fasting prayer, which is one of the Islamic holidays. And people with disabilities, doing generous acts if possible, learning about families in need of social support, trying to get their blessing in the hope of a reward. 07.05.2021 - During iftar ceremony, Chairwoman of Women's Advisory Council of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers Z. Ismailova and members of Women's Council donated student dormitories.

Information provided by Jahongir Saidakhmedov, Chairman of the Board of Student Dormitories

Press Service of TIAME