

The visit of a Japanese philosopher and monk to our institute and the participation at the premiere of the film

It is interesting to note that the famous Japanese philosopher and Buddhist monk Junsei Terasawa visited Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers. Today the famous Japanese philosopher, Buddhist monk Junsei Terasawa visited the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers. During the visit, he was accompanied by Shoiria Oripova, daughter of the great poet Abdulla Aripov. The Japanese guest visited Abdulla Aripov Youth Park and Museum at our educational institution. Junsei Terasawa was an ambassador for peace, he has visited countries around the world for almost half a century, praying for peace and prosperity. He is one of those who contributed to the peaceful settlement of many military conflicts at international meetings. Throughout his life, he met and communicated with leaders of almost all countries. Many international conferences and symposia, as well as the United Nations, have called on major countries to renounce nuclear weapons. In 2004, he met with the People's Poet of Uzbekistan Abdulla Aripov after the scientific conference "Dialogue between East and West" in Uzbekistan. Call it Eternal Space. I trust you for a world that goes back three thousand years. " It is about the ancient history and deep philosophy of the peoples of Central Asia. According to Terasawa, the rebirth will come when our space heroes wake up. This knowledge will unite humanity with the Universe and the Earth and ensure lasting peace on Earth. According to the scientist, our country recognized not only the religions of Buddhism and Zoroastrianism, but also the cradle of the highest Kushan civilization. It is the Kushan civilization that unites and harmonizes all peoples, religions and cultures. This is the only violent civilization. This important knowledge is in our blood, in our genes. They have come down to us for centuries thanks to the works of Beruni, Navoi and Ulugbek. When our land opens up to this knowledge, there will be a great renaissance or renaissance. Terasawa arrived in Uzbekistan in August 2021, visiting famous Buddhist historical sites in Termez, including Fayaz Hill, and prayed for peace. He met with the students of our institute and wished them to wake up like flowers. For, as our great poet wrote: "In the blood, in which the light of faith always flows, you do not know, there is a pearl in your soul." And they called us to remember and spread the great knowledge of our ancestors.

Following the visit, at 18.00 in the Writers' Alley, the premiere of a documentary about Abdulla Aripov took place. The film was taken by the studio of "Spectrum", it was attended by members of the Union of Writers of Uzbekistan, literary scholars, professors and teachers of our institute, the leadership of the Uzbek Agency of Cinematography, members of the family of our great poet. In particular, the participation and congratulations of the Japanese monk, philosopher Terasawa added interest to the circle. The event was opened by the vice-rector of the institute Ruzimurat Choriev, who spoke about the work carried out in the educational institution to perpetuate the name of the People's poet. Then, Professor Kiyomiddin Nazarov, Associate Professor Shukhrat Rizaev, poet Shodmonkul Salom, film director Furkat Usmanov, laureate of the Zulfiya State Prize, student of the Interhouse Lyceum Rukhshona gave information about the premiere and expressed sincere congratulations. Then a film was shown to the public. The premiere of the film made a great impression on everyone.

