

Cooperation with Geoinnovation Center on the integration of education and industry

A round table discussion was held with Abdullaev Abdishukur Hamidovich, Deputy Director of the Cadastre Agency under the State Tax Committee of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Director of the Geoinnovation Center, and students of the Faculty of Land Management. At the event, the director of the center A.Abdullaev met with students majoring in "Geodesy and Geoinformatics", "Land Cadastre and Land Use", "Innovative Technologies in Remote Sensing" and talked about issues related to the training of competitive, educated personnel in the field.

In addition, they discussed the question which interested students, such as the activities of enterprises and organizations in the system of the Cadastre Agency, the Geoinnovation Center; use of unmanned aerial vehicles "drones" in geodesy, geoinformatics, cadastre, and other fields; Organization of training and production practices in the Geoinnovation Center, acquaintance with the work process of the center during the training period, study experience and organization of training sessions; the procedure for training and certification of drones in special courses on drone launches; Students received answers for their questions about the requirements for professional knowledge and skills for future employment in enterprises and organizations of the cadastral agency, including the Geoinnovation Center. The roundtable was meaningful, exciting, and full of questions and answers.

Information of the Dean of the Faculty of Land Management Sh.Narbaev