

the future starts today

April 9, 2021 on the initiative of the Institute psychologist M.K. Mukhamedova a round table and training on "The future in your hands" was organized for students of groups 306-307 of the Faculty of mechanization of agriculture. The event was attended by curators of groups N. Kholikova, N. Ashurov and students of groups 306-307.

The round table took the form of a dialogue. M.K. Mukhamedova gave complete and comprehensive answers to all questions. The event continued with trainings "The reason why I study at the institute", "My mood during my studies", "I am in the future".

All students took an active part in the training, especially group 307 students Yakhshimova Gulzhakhon, Karimova Gulrukh, Isokov Rashid. In particular, Yakhshimova Gulzhakhon, who is older among all students in her group, became an example for students through her life experience.
