

Living in peace is such a priceless blessing.

On the basis of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated October 23, 2019 "On the worthy celebration of the 75th anniversary of Victory in the Great Patriotic War" in Almazar district of Tashkent, the memorial complex "Victory Park" and its territory. There was established a State Museum Glory.

Victory Park has become a complex demonstrating the great contribution and courage of the people of Uzbekistan to the victory in World War II.

On June 9, 2021, 1st year students of the 110th group of the Faculty of Agricultural Mechanization, together with the trainer of the group A. Bozorboev, visited the memorial complex "Victory Garden". Students who visited the Victory Park memorial complex were delighted with the exhibits presented here. The complex has once again confirmed the value of peace and prosperity and the sacred duty to treasure it.
