

Creating new talents is really important

In addition to training and internships in educational institutions, the selection of young talents with unique abilities is also important for the discovery of new talents. Interesting performances of students within the framework of the festival has been organized at our institute, that left a warm impression on everyone. The winners were awarded in the following nominations: The Best Boy, The Best Girl, The Best Speaker, The Best Team Captain, The Best Performer, The Best Fashion Designer, which proved that there were a lot of gifted students at the Institute.
