

Life guide

✘ The constitution Latin "constitution" is the main law of the state. The Constitution is a set of rights and obligations of citizens. It defines the structure of the state, the system of governing bodies, their powers and procedures, the electoral system, the rights and freedoms of citizens, the relationship between society and the individual, as well as legal system and the relations between the state and society. Knowing and following to it is the key to a person's life and family well-being. One of the main tasks of today is to raise legal awareness and legal culture in the society, in particular, to teach our youth important aspects of the Constitution.

On the occasion of the Constitution Day of the Republic of Uzbekistan at the student dormitory 2 was organized a "Round table" on the theme "Constitution is a guide to happiness". There participated teachers of the department "Humanitarian sciences" M.U.Turdiboeva, B.A. Mamadaminova, teacher-educator D. M.Sagdullaeva and MoHW faculty students.

Information of assistant of the Department of Humanitarian sciences, MoHW Faculty Bahriddin Mukimov

Head of the Press Service of the Institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov