

Five initiatives-five opportunities

On December 3, 2020, among the first year students of the Faculty of energy supply of “Agriculture and water resources” at the sports complex of the institute was held the competition “Dean's Cup” on the type of mini-football of the sport under the slogan “five initiatives-five opportunities”. The purpose of this event was to spend meaningful leisure time with students, to increase respect for each other and to strengthen students' interest in sports. (“Automation and Management of Technological Processes and Production”) team consisting of 103 Group students took 1st place, (MEM) team consisting of 109 group students took 2nd place, (“Automation and Management of Technological Processes and Production”) team consisting of 102 group students took 3rd place and were awarded with certificates and prizes.

TIIAME Press service