

A genius of national spirituality

On February 9, 2021 on the initiative of Women council of the faculty of mechanization of irrigation works and deputy dean of the faculty on youth affairs, the spiritual and educational event "Alisher Navoi - the genius of the national spirituality" was held in the student dormitory #2. Head of the Youth Affairs, Spirituality and Education Department Z. Haidarov spoke about the ongoing work on the study and popularization of the rich creative legacy left by Mir Alisher Navoi.

✘ In his poetic works, the great poet demonstrates lofty universal and patriotic ideas, the incomparable richness of words and endless possibilities of expressing our mother tongue in all its charm and elegance. The event featured popular ghazals, rubai, melodies and songs of Navoi performed by students. The event was aimed at deepening the study of Navoi folk epos and popularizing their ideas among youth. To inculcate in youth a sense of love for the motherland through the works of Navoi.
