

Holy Value

Human beings, nations and nations are alive with a sense of historical memory. Memory - is the light of the sacred book that tells us the past, our ancestors, our national heritage. Under the guidance of Associate Professor of "Irrigation and Melioration" Adham Mamataliev, 2nd year students of the 202 group of Hydromelioration Faculty visited the Memorial Square in Tashkent. This visit was held on May 9 - Day of Memory and Honor. The group of students visited the Statue of Ancestors and honored the memory of our compatriots who died in the Second World War.

To honor the memory of our ancestors who died in the Second World War, to respect the spirit of their souls, as well as to our today's peaceful, peaceful and prosperous life, to the veterans who have died in the battlefields for our peaceful life. 'We all remember that our mission is a humane duty. This visit made a great impression on the students. These impressions play an important role in knowing the history of our ancestors, their patriotism, their greed, their heroic deeds, their inheritance from us, the successor to their good deeds, and the deep commitment of young people to the responsibility of society.
