

Visit the Veterans' Home

✘ The life is compared to the flowing water, and a moment can not be dropped off. But what has been done, good deeds, will always be spoken in tongues. May 9 - "Day of Memory and Honor" is widely celebrated in our country as a nationwide holiday. The management of the institute, along with their own initiatives, organized visits to their homes by remembering the elderly who had the courage to hit the heroes and the Fronts at the chairs.

On May 9, the Deputy Dean of the Faculty of "Land Management" H. Eshova and the dean of the Department of Geodesy and Geoinformatics I. Musaev, the teachers of the department M.Rajabayev and O. Mukhtorov congratulated former Sattorkhan Ibodullayev, a former professor of Geodesy and Geoinformatics department. They went to the hospital to get the message. On behalf of the rector of the institute congratulated on the holiday and presented gifts. Sattorkhan Ibodullaev, very pleased with this visit, expressed his gratitude to us and the management of the institute.
