

The Department of Hydrology and Ecology of the Bukhara branch of TIAME takes an active part in the Republican competition "Expert of Reforms"

In the first half of September 2021, the Department of Hydrology and Ecology of the Bukhara branch of TIAME took an active part in the Republican Scientific and Educational Competition "Expert of Reforms" in the nomination "The Best Department for Spiritual and Educational Work" and scored 26.4 points. The presentation on the 2nd condition of the 2nd stage took place at the Center for Spirituality and Education under the Ministry. Results will be announced after presentations in all categories.

Note! In the second stage of the nomination "The most active promoter of reforms", will take part a 4th-year student of the direction of education "Water management and melioration" of the Bukhara branch of TIAME, who scored 23.6 points.

Press service of the Bukhara branch of TIAME.