

Masterclass week

At the initiative of the Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs, the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanisation Engineers organised training seminars called "Master Class Week". The first day of the master class was organised by Ruzimurat Choriev, Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs. He spoke about the ongoing reforms in our country in the field of youth policy, the wide opportunities created for young people, the activities of students at our institute and their achievements in national competitions.

✘ ✘ On the second day of the master class, there was an open dialogue with Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov, press secretary of the Institute, on the subject of "Secrets of Public Speaking". He spoke about the situations he had experienced in the secrets of public speaking, what to focus on in public speeches, and told about how famous speakers performed. At the end of the meeting, Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov recommended foreign and local literature on the secrets of public speaking. ✘ ✘

On the third day, the master class was organised by Zuhridin Haidarov, Head of the Youth and Student Affairs, Spirituality and Education Department. The students were informed about the youth reforms mentioned in the President's Address to Parliament.

On the fourth day of the master class, Shahribonu Umirbayeva, an employee of the Youth Entrepreneurship Support Centre and the Ziyoforum.uz Public Science Development Fund, organised an open discussion on the role of women in our society for our students. Umirbaeva expressed her opinion and personal views on the problems that have arisen in her work and in which areas of society the problem of gender equality has not yet been solved ✘ The fifth day of the masterclass featured an open dialogue with Akmal Berdimurodov, a youth leader at the institute, and Akbarov Dilmurod, a member of the Gifted Students Unit. Akmal Berdimurodov provided detailed information on freelancing, the culture of using social networks and blogging, which are now popular among young people. Akbarov Dilmurod, a holder of the Presidential Scholarship, spoke in detail about the preparation of documents for the state scholarship and the requirements for candidates for the prestigious scholarship. ✘

The press service of TIAME

.