

Public speaking on a global scale

On May 3, 2021, the student of 207- group from Organization and Management of Water Resources Faculty, Davron Turdibekov took part in the online competition "The Art of Public Speaking" held at the German Embassy in Tashkent under the guidance of the teacher of the Department of Languages B.A. Bobozhonov. Students from 29 higher educational institutions of our country participated in the online competition. Davron Turdibekov was awarded with a diploma for his active participation.

Press Service of TIAME