

Briefly about students the meeting with Chairperson Council of Student Housing

We all know that students' daily lives depend on their activities and lifestyles. Saidakhmedov Jakhongir, chairman of the student housing council of Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers, visited the 3rd students' dormitory in order to get acquainted with the ongoing work for accommodating students in hostels, for this reason there was organized a meaningful event as well as organization the leisure time of youth, he also got information about students the conditions created in the dormitory. He also explained the students about the necessity of strict following to the internal regulations.

Press service of TIAME