

Pilgrimage as a lesson in history

November 10, 2019 deputy dean of the faculty of Hydraulic Engineering A.I.Azimov, along with active students of the faculty, visited the Zangi-ota memorial complex. One of the Muslim saints Sheikh Ai-Khoja, who lived in the 13th century, and his wife Ambar Bibi were buried in this place. The Zangi-ota memorial complex is one of the most visited holy places in Tashkent. Students got acquainted with the architectural monuments of Muslim culture.
