

Holiday chores

New Year is a holiday of goodness, miracles and expectations of changes for the better. This is the time when every day is filled with the feeling of a holiday - the kindest, most promising and always a little magical. Assistance in organizing the charity event was provided by the Dean of the Faculty of Organization and Management of Water Resources and "English" Department. They congratulated the students who live in the student dormitory and presented them food.

Press service of TIAME