

Visit the State Museum of Timurid History

From the first days of independence, great attention paid to the revival of the great and invaluable spiritual and cultural heritage created by our ancestors for centuries. The people of Uzbekistan had the opportunity to revive their history, to bring to light the forgotten names, historical figures, who played an important role in world development. Amir Temur, a prominent commander, and politician, reformer, patron of commerce, science and culture, was one of these men. In accordance with the Decree of the First President, 1996 declared the Year of Amir Temur and its 660th anniversary widely celebrated in our country. On March 14, 1996, the Cabinet of Ministers issued a decree on the building of the State Museum of the History of the Timurids.

The museum inaugurated on October 18, 1996, with the participation of visitors from our country and foreign countries. During independence, new museums have been established in Uzbekistan, which has become an integral part of our cultural life. Among them is the establishment of the State Museum of the History of the Timurids as a worldwide event. So visiting is a great source of information in terms of understanding. On March 11, 2014, at the Faculty of Land Management 410th group, the Faculty of "Land Resources Management " in order to familiarize the students with the life and activities of the great commander, the great Amir Temur, and his efforts for the central state. Students of the group under the leadership of Z. Hafizova visited the State Museum of History of Timurids. The students impressed with the world.
