

Meeting with the Honorary General

On January 11, 2020, a roundtable discussion held with active students of the Agricultural Mechanization faculty and veteran of the Border Troops General Abdulla Artikbaev under the slogan "We are responsible for the defense of the motherland". During the interview, General shared with students his accomplishments, career and good times in his life and wished them success in their future studies and work, and expressed their gratitude to the faculty members. The general asked the youth to keep up the motto and never forget it. "Don't say badly about present time, be pleased with the country and do not say that this is not enough for you, you do not know what loss is". Students received answers to their questions.
