

The new look of the student dormitory

It is not a secret that our capital is becoming more and more modern and beautiful. The commissioned student dormitory N#4 is an example of creative transformation. The opening ceremony of student dormitory N#4 was held. The faculty and students of the institute attended. Cozy rooms and modern furniture, a relaxation room equipped with all the amenities, brought a lot of joy to students.

The builders put a lot of work in order to repair and bring the building of the student dormitory into such a state. Speakers at the opening ceremony of the dormitory, the rector of the institute wholeheartedly thanked the builders, designers and all those who contributed to the creation of this wonderful gift for students. The commissioning of the student hostel is a big event on the eve of the 85th anniversary of our institute.

It must be recognized that modern youth lives and studies in good conditions, which we should be proud of. In the student dormitory, all conditions for a normal life of students are created. All rooms have upholstered and hard furniture, there are rooms for classes, a gym, creative clubs work. All this creates favorable conditions for successful studies. It is easy to understand the spirit of our students' commitment to the ideals of our president, who is always glad of their success. Students of the institute, in response to the concerns of the state, strive to master modern knowledge and want to become highly qualified specialists, specialists in their field.

