

Cooperation is ongoing with JSCB "Turonbank"

On September 11, a regular seminar was held in the auditorium of JSCB "Turonbank" of our faculty. The topic of the seminar was "Issues of organizing an Islamic window in JSCB" Turonbank". Ravshan Shukhratovich Fayziev, Director of the Retail Services Department of Turonbank JSCB, delivered a presentation. 36 professors and 17 3rd year students of "Organization and Management of Water Resources"Department attended at the seminar.

The seminar was captivating and full of questions and answers. Islamic finance, which is based on the rules of Islam and Sharia, is of great interest to every professor, student, and especially economist.

This regular seminars make a signifacant to help our faculty staff understand properly the essence of the reforms in our economy, finance, banking, credit system. The seminar will be held every Saturday in B Block, 109 room JSCB "Turonbank", we invite all interested people.

Press service TIIAME