

Smart girls are family favorites

Girls who wear elegant, beautiful national costumes and have good hair considered the beauty of our neighbourhood. On 13 February 2020, on the initiative of the Dean of the Faculty of Land Resources Management Sh.Narbayev held the competition. M. Turdibaeva, A. Sanbetova, Z. Beknazarova, N. Safarboeva and D. Murodova was the judge. The "Girls' Circle" contest held in four stages. The most active of the students of the faculty, in particular, the 3rd year students D.Jabborova, the first course students S.Ortikova, L.Khamidullaeva, D. Ibragimova and A.Egamberdieva demonstrate their superiority in agility, skill, intelligence and knowledge. They competed for the purpose. The girls who participated in the Girls' Circle performed the first prerequisite for the competition - introducing themselves. The audience applauded the oratorical skills of the girls and the rhythm of the poetic lines.

The second task - asked questions to test our girls' level of knowledge. Our girls who are interested in literature have surpassed this requirement. The third task - the girls used all their skills in cooking. The names of the girls also mentioned in the names of the delicious spring salads, decorated on plates and tasty. The same vegetables and semi-dishes used for salads.

The fourth task is a free theme, where our girls came from their own talents, some of them with great poetry, beautiful dances, and beautiful songs that pleased the audience. After that, the jury awarded by D. Ibragimova as "the most Funny girl", "The Most Inteligent Girl" - S. Ortikova, "The Best Cooking Girl"- L. Khamidullaeva, and "The Most Talented Girl" A. Jabborova, A.Egamberdieva recognized as " The most Knowledgeable Girl". The faculty awarded with diplomas and prizes.

Such events are important for the development of our girls in a harmonious, well mannered, - says the dean of our faculty Sh. Narbaev. Our girls' awareness of Oriental etiquette, traditions and grandmothers shows that they are to become good wives, housewives, mothers, and make a worthy contribution to the strong foundations of family society.

Information from the Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs of LM faculty Kh. Eshova

Press Service of the Institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov