

Special seminar with specialists in the field of land management

The integration of science and industry plays an important role in the preparation of highly educated and competitive personnel for the economy of the country. On April 9, 2021, at the Faculty of Land Management was held a seminar on the discussion and improvement of the disciplines and curricula of bachelor's and master's programs with the involvement of leading specialists and industry representatives from employers and industry enterprises.

Specialists from the Ministry of Agriculture of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the Cadastral Agency under the State Tax Committee, the State Cadastral Chamber, the Republican Center for Air Geodesy, Cartography and the director of the Tashkent College of Geodesy and Cartography attended at the seminar.

The curricula of subjects of educational directions 5313400 - "Geodesy and geoinformatics", 5311200 - "Innovative technologies in remote sensing", 5410700 - "Land cadastre and land use", 5311300 - "Cadastre (state cadastre)", bachelor degree, 5A313401 - "Geodesy and geography ", specialty magistracy 5A410701 -" Use and management of land resources", were discussed and were made proposals to include new disciplines in the curriculum.

Press service of TIIAME