

The role of women in activities under the slogan "Let's live free and well."

The spiritual and educational work of the Women's Advisory Councils of our Institute with female teachers and students deserves high praise. One of such events was initiated by the Chairwoman of the Women's Council of the Faculty of Agricultural Mechanization, Kholikova Nargiza Abduvalievna. Under the motto "Let's live free and well" in the new Uzbekistan, an online seminar on the role of women in spiritual and educational work was organized.

Anvar Mirzo, a member of the Union of Writers of Uzbekistan, Advisor to the Rector of the Tashkent State Economic University, author of the Anthem of the Union of Youth of Uzbekistan, and author of the Anthem of the National Guard of Uzbekistan, was invited to the webinar. The event was also attended by R. Choriev, Vice-Rector for Spiritual and Educational Work and Work with Youth, Z. Ismailova, Chair of the Institute's Women's Advisory Council, and all women of the Institute.

During the event, the Chairman of the Women's Advisory Council of the Faculty of Agricultural Mechanization N. Khalikova provided information about the work of the faculty with women, which is held today under the motto "Let's live free and prosperous". The contribution of women to the spiritual and educational work was noted.

The pres-service of TIAME