

Views towards the life and work of a poet

The names of people who fought for a peaceful, prosperous and stable life of our nation, are eternal for a bright future. Today at 11.00 am on the ZOOM platform, was organized a spiritual and educational event on the theme "Views towards the life and work of a poet" dedicated to the Uzbek poet and public figure, hero of Uzbekistan, author of the text of the national anthem, national poet of Uzbekistan Abdulla Aripov. The moderators of the online event were the Dean of the Faculty of Land Management Sh. Narbaev and the Deputy Dean for Youth Affairs H. Eshova. The event was attended by the professor-teachers of the faculty, students, poetry lovers, as well as Muhammad Ismoil a famous poet, a member of the Writers' Union, director of the School of Creativity named after Khalima Khudoiberdieva.

Oeuvre of Abdulla Aripov represents one of the brightest pages of modern Uzbek literature. His poems deeply analyze the spiritual world of man and the history of the people, - says the director of the creative school named after Khalima Khudoyberdiyeva, the poet's student, the famous poet Muhammad Ismoil. Therefore, in 1998, Abdulla Aripov was awarded the title "Hero of Uzbekistan". The romantic mood in the early poems of Abdulla Aripov gradually gave way to philosophical observations, the poet's attitude to life events became more active. In this sense, poems such as "Golden Fish", "Genetics" and others show that Aripov expands the horizons of lyric poetry through the depiction of life's problems. There is no event at which his works are not performed. Every day we wake up and fall asleep to the sound of the national anthem. Abdulla Aripov is a creator who will forever be remembered by each of us for his invaluable creativity, fiery lines, wise thoughts. Not everyone is given happiness, the height that Abdulla Aripov had. It is necessary to deeply understand the essence and significance of poetry, thoughts of Abdulla Aripov, to bring this priceless heritage to future generations. It should be noted that the poetry of A. Aripov occupies a special place in the understanding of the Uzbek people of national identity.

On the initiative of the head of the Republic, Specialized Boarding School named after Abdulla Aripov began operating in the center of Karshi. There was opened a museum and a library, which contains all the works of A. Aripov and books of other writers. This is a sign of special respect for the poet's work. The head of the Department of Land Use A. Bobozhonov, the press secretary of the Institute R. Dzhumaniyazov spoke at the event, who shared their warm memories of the poet, and also read poems from the poet's works.
