

Students of our institute reached the final "100 ideas for Uzbekistan"

At the beginning of the year, President Shavkat Mirziyoyev launched the project "100 Ideas for Uzbekistan" to identify talented youth and support their initiatives. 100 ideas were collected from each region - in total 1400 ideas. The first stage of the project "100 Ideas for Uzbekistan" took place in the regions, the project was recognized to be worthy and won a promotion to the final.

Fortunately, our requirements are among these finalists, and today they are working on their own projects and ideas for the final.

Bekdashov Behruz Nuriddin o'g'li, 2nd-year student of the Faculty of Hydromelioration

Tursunkulov Avazbek Odiljon o'g'li, 3rd-year student of the Faculty of Hydromelioration

Turdiyev Akbarali Usmon o'g'li. 1st-year master's student in hydraulics and engineering hydrology

Khurramov Mukhriddin Khasanovich, 2nd-year student of mechanization of irrigation and drainage works.

We wish good luck and success to the finalists of the "100 Ideas for Uzbekistan" competition!
