

Literary and educational evening

On February 14, 2020, on the 537th anniversary of the birth of Zakhiriddin Muhammad Babur, a great poet, historian, political leader, founder of the Baburid dynasty, a representative of Uzbek classical literature, a literary and educational evening and the book do good to people took place in the Great Hall of the National Library of Uzbekistan.

The event attended by writers, poets, literary critics, public figures, art historians, literature lovers, military personnel, students of the Tashkent Institute of Irrigation and Agricultural Mechanization Engineers.

The host of the literary and educational evening was Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov, candidate of philological sciences, associate professor.

The opening speech made by the Deputy Director of the National Library of Uzbekistan Nasiba Kholdorova.

Norkul Bekmirzaev, candidate of philological sciences, made a presentation on the role of Babur in the spiritual's history culture of our people.

The event attended by Honored Artist of Uzbekistan Gulbakhor Erkulova, a member of the Union of Writers of Uzbekistan poets Zikrilla Nematov, Dilorom Murodova, Honored Artist of Uzbekistan Kursiya Esanova, Honored Artist of Uzbekistan Turgun Beknazarov, singers Ulmas Olloberganov, Nargiza Azimova, Ozodbekov Tillanazarov, Nazokat Narzieva and military unit No. 98151 Abror Kodirgulovich Akhnazarov and leading actors of the Uzbek National Academic Drama Theater, the "Diador" and "Mukimi" theaters. The peak of his work is rightly considered "Baburname" - a work in which historical events, outstanding personalities, natural landscapes captured. In addition, it is a kind of encyclopedia containing scientific information about many areas of life of that era. Also in the text of "Baburname" traditions and other elements of folklore used, descriptions of traditions and rites are given. The Uzbek people are proud of the masterpieces of the outstanding poet and brilliant scientist Babur.

Press Service of the Institute Rakhimboy Djumaniyazov